

The Parliamentary Education Office (PEO) site is a great place to go for parliamentary education services and resources for schools, teachers and students. It has photos, fact sheets, parliamentary role-plays, a parliamentary glossary, the Australian Constitution, histories.

www.peo.gov.au

The National Capital Educational Tourism Project (NCETP) is a joint initiative of the ACT Government and the National Capital Attractions Association. The NCETP has been formed to assist schools in understanding the educational benefit of a visit to the National Capital and encouraging more to take the opportunity to visit for the first time.

www.ncetp.org.au